

eDiscovery in Government Investigations/Matters

Panelists

Jennifer Baumann

Chief Counsel, Litigation
Office of the Missouri Attorney General

Rachel Hayes

Senior Trial Attorney, Division of Enforcement
Commodity Futures Trading Commission

Tracy Greer

Senior Counsel, Antitrust Division
Department of Justice

Stephen W. Rodger

Attorney, Bureau of Competition
Federal Trade Commission

Disclaimer

The views expressed in this presentation are solely our individual views and do not necessarily reflect those of our places of employment.

The Current Landscape

- Department of Justice
- Federal Trade Commission
- Commodity Futures Trading Commission
- Missouri Attorney General's Office

E-Discovery with the Government

- The Government's Approach to eDiscovery
- Negotiating with the Government
- Cellphones & Privacy
- Confidentiality & Privilege

The Government's Approach to eDiscovery

Negotiating with the Government

- Preparing for first call
 - ESI Questionnaires/Data Maps
- Preservation Issues
- Volume & Timing of Production
- Search Terms
- Technology Assisted Review
- Production Format

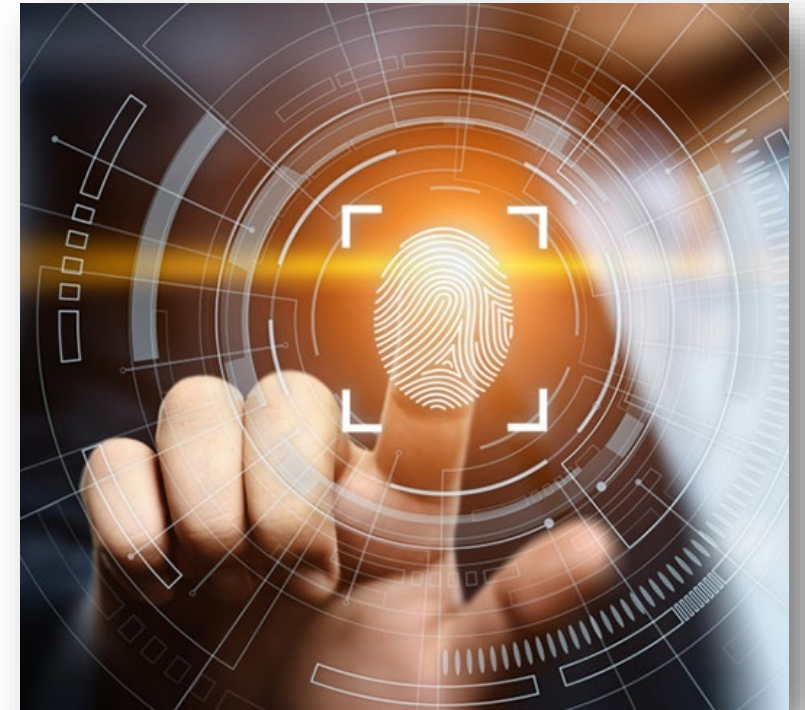

Cellphones

- Preservation & Collection
- Company vs. Personal
 - Device Ownership vs. Service Plan
- Handling Privacy Concerns

Confidentiality & Privilege

- Protecting your client w/o a Protective Order
- FRE 502 vs. Clawback Agreement
- Blanket Confidentiality Stamps
 - FOIA/Sunshine Law Requests Concerns

Questions